

April Walker (she/her) is a nonprofit and foundation consultant, equity champion, and writer.

April's decade long career in philanthropy spans grantmaking, fundraising, and consulting roles at the American Heart Association, Boys & Girls Clubs of Chicago, CCS Fundraising, VNA Foundation, and Iris

Krieg & Associates. She previously served as Chief Development Officer for a workforce development nonprofit in Cleveland, Ohio where she led a $10 million capital campaign raising $3.2 million in 18 months. In 2021, April founded Philanthropy for the People, an equity-centered consulting firm that equips donors, foundations, and nonprofits to embrace philanthropy that centers racial equity and social justice.

Born and raised in Baltimore, April has called the Midwest home for the past 10 years. She serves on the boards of Arts Impact, the Cuyahoga County Library Foundation, Enlightened Solutions, and the Curve Foundation.

April earned a Master of Arts in Social Service Administration from the University of Chicago and a BA in Sociology from the George Washington University. For more information about April and to view recent publications, please see her LinkedIn.